About King's College

King's College is an independent school dedicated to providing the best all-round education it is possible to obtain. Since 1896, the College has provided excellence in teaching and learning while ensuring a focus on the academic, cultural, social, physical, emotional and spiritual dimensions of life.

The King's Courier readership

The King's Courier magazine is a vital communication channel between the College and it's highly engaged wider community. Our King's community includes Old Collegians, past parents, current parents, students and staff. Through the magazine, we are proud to celebrate the successes and excellence demonstrated by our past and current students, staff and community.

For more than a century, the King's Courier has been the flagship communication within the King's community. Today, it is mailed directly to more than 7,500 addresses and emailed to 1,100 email subscribers. Our digital versions of the Courier magazines hosted on our website receive around 89,600 total views for the year.

The majority of the King's Courier magazines are distributed to addresses in suburbs around the central Auckland area. Approximately half of these go to the suburbs of Remuera (24%), St Heliers (5%), Parnell (5%), Epsom (5%) and Mt Eden (3%).

In 2025, the King's Courier will once again reflect the vibrancy of the College. The high level of engagement of the community with the publication means it is consistently relevant.

The interest in its content literally spans generations and our staff regularly receive feedback from our readers about the magazine and what they enjoy about it. We also host the magazine on our King's College website as a flipbook. The Courier magazine is converted into in a digital format allowing the readers to access it no matter where they are in the world on their mobile, tablet, and desktop.

The King's Collegian

Since 1902 the College has produced the King's Collegian, a yearbook that forever captures school achievements and memories for students and their families. The Collegian takes centre stage on many families coffee tables for students, parents, grandparents and friends alike to read and enjoy. The high level of engagement from the community means it is relevant and well read, as the Collegian is repeatedly referred back to over the years.

The Collegian is distributed to all current students and staff, along with prospective King's families. Each year around 2,000 physical copies are produced along with a digital version available for the wider community to access.
